The Gospel According to Luke and The Acts of the Risen Lord

Morey Lloyd, Facilitator

This Lenten Season we will take the opportunity to peek into someone's mail: someone named Theophilus (which means "Lover of God" or "Someone Loved by God"). One way or another, his mail may just be addressed to you and me! Watch, hear and read Luke and Acts on Thursdays at 7pm from February 18th – March 25th.

The Future of Faith by Harvey Cox

Book Study and Discussion Group

Susan VanDyke and Canon Walker, Facilitators

This book, recommended by Diana Butler Bass and Dean Baker, outlines what Cox sees to be the three eras of Christianity: The Age of Faith; The Age of Belief; and The Age of the Spirit. He sees the current worldwide Christian church returning to the early church ways – that is, returning to following Jesus' teaching more than following creeds and doctrines. Cox believes that this current age is breaking down barriers based on hierarchy in favor of activism and personal experiential spirituality.

Join TNAC for an exploration of this book during Lent. Be prepared to have some fun along with a serious look at the church in our times. The book will be available in the Cathedral Bookstore (and can be downloaded to a Kindle).

Living the Questions – Video Series

Steve Skiffington, Facilitator

Living the Questions (LtQ) is one of the best explorations of the Christian Faith ever produced for Adult Spiritual Formation. Each episode brings together both contemporary scholars and laypeople of great faith to explore the primary tenets of Christianity. LtQ challenges us. It causes us to examine our suppositions about scripture and theology in a way that evokes great discourse! It is faith building. Each class is a unit to itself and drop-ins are always welcome. If you are new to Trinity and new to Christianity this is a great place to start a new faith journey. If you are established in your faith and love being pulled to a deeper place of commitment, enjoy exploring what lies behind your faith tradition and are simply curious you will find it a journey of delight and surprise!
