Trinity's Lunch Bunch meets every Thursday from noon to 1:30 p.m. in the Assembly Area. While we eat the lunches we bring, we discuss books, films and current events.

Continuing through February 3rd, we'll be viewing and discussing a five-part series, Embracing an Adult Faith: Marcus Borg and What It Means to Be Christian. Come join us as we explore what adult faith means by discussing what we learn from Marcus Borg about God, Jesus, Salvation, Faith and Community. Newcomers and drop-ins are always welcome. Facilitator: Rev. Anne McKeever -- amckeever@wavecable.com

Writing Group

Do you like to write? Do you like giving and receiving purely positive feedback? Then come join us in the Conference Room every Thursday afternoon from 4:30 to 6 p.m. Using a quotation or short piece of writing as a springboard, we write quietly for about twenty minutes and then, if we choose, share all or part of our writing with the group. Our feedback uplifts and encourages writers to try new forms of expression. Newcomers and drop-ins are always welcome. Facilitator: Rev. Anne McKeever — amckeever@wavecable.com

CLASSES FOR EPIPHANY 1

7:00 to 8:30 pm through February 6

- First Peter

Presented by the Rev. Dr. Peter Rodgers and four Fuller seminarians in Room F.

The First Epistle of Peter is a short and beautiful letter that outlines the heart of Christian faith and life. It is written to Christians in Asia Minor in the first century who are experiencing "suffering for the name of Christ." Peter writes to encourage them to stand fast and live Christ-like lives in the midst of these trials. Rich in Old testament quotations and allusions to the words of Jesus, and their application to God's people, the letter is as relevant today as it was in the days of earliest Christianity.

- The Zealot: The Life and Times of Jesus of Nazareth by Reza Aslan

Presented by Susan Hotchkiss and Andre Jensen in the Cathedral Bookshop

"In Zealot, Reza Aslan doesn't just synthesize research and reimagine a lost world, though he does those things very well. Aslan rips Jesus out of all the contexts we thought he belonged in and holds him forth as someone entirely new. This is Jesus as a passionate Jew, a violent revolutionary, a fanatical ideologue, an odd and scary and extraordinarily interesting man." – Judith Shulevitz

- Embracing an Adult Faith: Marcus Borg on What It Means to Be Christian

Presented by the Rev. Anne McKeever in the Conference Room.

This is a five-session series for those seeking a richer understanding of issues in contemporary Christian practice and theology: Who was Jesus? Who is God? What is salvation? How do we practice our faith? How do we live in community? Each week we'll view and then discuss a short DVD segment of a lecture and discussion led by Marcus Borg. Embracing and Adult Faith participant Workbooks will be available for purchase for $10 in class. Some workbooks will be available to check out and borrow for five weeks.
