Book Study: Radical Forgiveness: God's Call to Unconditional Love by Brian Zahnd

Rev. Anne Arthur and Canon Walker, Facilitators

Recover the true beauty of Christianity as found in forgiveness. If Christianity is to be a compelling and relevant voice in the 21st century, it needs a return to its roots. Beginning with the horror of the Holocaust, Radical Forgiveness explores what forgiveness means – and how far it should go – in the real world of human suffering. Class meets in the Conference Room.

Book Study: The Gnostic Gospels by Elaine Pagel

Susan Hotchkiss, Facilitator

Elaine Pagels book gives a clear, readable and effective introduction to the gnostic tradition within the early church. These early writings, defined as heretical by the second century, were a challenge to early orthodoxy. Class meets in the Cathedral Bookshop.

Book Study: The Meaning of Mary Magdalene: Discovering the Woman at the Heart of Christianity by Cynthia Bourgeault

-Rev Kathy Hopner, Facilitator

Mary Magdalene is one of the most influential symbols in the history of Christianity-yet, if you look in the Bible, you'll find only a handful of verses that speak of her. How did she become such a compelling saint in the face of such paltry evidence? In her effort to answer that question, Cynthia Bourgeault examines the Bible, church tradition, art, legend, and newly discovered texts to see what's there. Class meets in Room J.

2014 Book of Common Prayer and Bible Challenge

—Rhonda Canby, Facilitator

This second "Bible Challenge" from +Bishop Beisner invites participants to read a chapter from the New Testament, a Psalm, and a prayer from the BCP each day ending December 30. The Bible Challenge's goal is to re-acquaint us with scripture and our Prayer Book as part of our own spiritual journey. Class meets in Room F.
