

Trinity Episcopal Cathedral Announcements

Welcome! Please accept a welcome gift from the ushers as they are offered during the time of Announcements. It has information, some gifts, and a card for you to fill out if you like. We hope you will fill out the card and put it in the offering plate because it will help us know about your needs. We promise that this will not generate junk mail.

Secret Pals

We are looking for Secret Pals for the teachers and staff at Leataata Floyd School. Each teacher and staff person fills out an information sheet about them self and the work they do at the school. The Secret Pal (parishioner) is encouraged to send little notes of encouragement, to remember his or her birthday, special holidays, and help with supplies that might be needed.

A sign-up sheet will be available at a table on Sunday or call Mary Hustler at 916-715-6942 or email at mmhust@hotmail.com with any questions.

Pastoral Emergencies:

Call the office: 446-2513
Evenings, weekends & holidays: 214-0382

Prayer Box in the Narthex: Daughters of the King will hold your request in prayer daily for at least one month.

CHANTICLEER comes to Trinity Cathedral!

Sunday, September 17 at 5:00 pm

A concert by CHANTICLEER, perhaps the world's finest men's vocal ensemble. Heart of a Soldier, features new compositions by Mason Bates and John Musto in a program about the art of soldiering, the pageant of war, the absurdity of battle, the loves left behind and the hope of peace. Included are new arrangements by ensemble members Brian Hinman and Adam Ward.

We are very pleased to be hosting this Grammy award winning choir! Tickets can be purchased at the door.

This Week

Tuesday Morning Group (TMG)

Meets every Tuesday at 10:00am in the Conference Room

The group is discussing Karen Armstrong's Twelve Steps to a Compassionate Life. The Cathedral Bookshop has the book and you are encouraged to read it to enhance our discussions. If you have any questions contact Susan Hotchkiss at susan_hotchkiss1@hotmail.com

Lunch Bunch

Meets every Thursday at noon in the Conference Room.

We are currently discussing Hillbilly Elegy: A Memoir of a Family and Culture in Crisis by J. D. Vance. Are you wondering what the main issues were that seemed to have plagued working-class whites and "Hillbillies" for decades in America? Are you looking for answers to questions about the psychological effects of adverse childhood experiences and the way it affects people in the long run? How the author was able to use his negative experiences and turn it into a goal that will change his life forever. What "Hillbilly culture" is and how it affects the lives of people and so much more.

Coming Up

Trinity Cathedral Christian Art Festival

October 3-26 at Beatnik Studios on R Street

A reception will be held Friday, October 6 from 6-9 p.m. There will be a panel discussion on Wednesday, October 11 that will focus on the purpose of the show, the rationales underlying the pieces which were selected as winners, and the motivation of the various artists in creating the pieces.

The juror for the show is Frank Ordaz, an accomplished fine artist who was featured in The White House under the George W. Bush Administration. At one point in his career he was the artist who created the background paintings for Lucas Productions, notably for ET and the Star Wars series.

Small Groups

If you are interested in being a part of small group meal and fellowship groups that meet monthly, please fill out the survey so that we can create groups according to your preferences and interests. SURVEY: goo.gl/3dxYc If you are having trouble with the electronic form, feel free to stop by the front office and fill out a hard copy. We hope that these groups will create space to get to know one another, have fun, try spiritual practices together, and be open and inviting to friends and neighbors who might be curious about faith and church life. If you have any questions, please contact Rev. Megan at megan@trinitycathedral.org

How to Live as a Christian in This Crazy World

September 14 to October 19 - Assembly Area
Facilitated by TVR Brian Baker

With the breakdown of civility, chaos in our political systems and an increase of explicit racism, we are entering a frightening time of crisis. Dean Baker will lead a six-week conversation that will explore how our faith can both guide and sustain us as we strive for justice and peace and respect the dignity of every human being.

12 Steps to a Compassionate Life

September 14 to November 16 - Bookshop
Facilitated by Susan Hotchkiss

In 2010, Karen Armstrong, a renowned scholar of the world's religions, wrote Twelve Steps to A Compassionate Life. The Washington Post stated: "Armstrong lays out a pluralistic and, ultimately, secular way to spread compassion that's easy to believe in." From learning about compassion to loving your enemies, this book is extremely timely for living in the world today. Attendees are encouraged to purchase the book, available in the Cathedral Bookshop.
