

Trinity Episcopal Cathedral Announcements

Welcome! Please accept a welcome gift from the ushers as they are offered during the time of Announcements. It has information, some gifts, and a card for you to fill out if you like. We hope you will fill out the card and put it in the offering plate because it will help us know about your needs. We promise that this will not generate junk mail.

Soul Survivor – Room A

Finding A Faith That Can Survive The Church

Sundays through December 12

How does one nurture a Christian faith vigorous enough to thrive in spite of wounds received at the hands of a church?

That will be the central question driving a discussion course that begins today. We will consult the wisdom of various wise leaders, including some who were not Christians. The resource book will be Soul Survivor by Philip Yancey. Class facilitators are Vaughn Wolff and George Swank. Contact is George Swank at gswank2@pacbell.net

30/40s and Beyond—Conference Room

Join us for an intriguing series on Embracing An Adult Faith: What It Means to Be Christian, with Canon Theologian Marcus Borg. This week our topic is Salvation. Contact is Amy Dierlam — dnarock@pacbell.net

This Week

The Vocal Art Ensemble presents:

Voices of Innocence: wonder • hope • joy

Friday, November 22, 2013, 7:30 pm at Trinity Cathedral

The Trinity Cathedral Music Series presents the Vocal Art Ensemble as it leaps into a choral playground of expressive music, stirring up the pure and precious emotions of childhood. Vivacious ethnic pieces from Serbia and Africa walk hand-in-hand with honored composers John Sheppard and Stephen Foster, as well as living legends Morten Lauridsen and Arvo Pärt. Diverse instruments, vocal textures, and visual play are all presented with VAE's signature polish and meticulous attention to detail. To embody the child's viewpoint, we offer the budding talents of our children, whose instrumental exuberance and unbridled voices celebrate generations of cherished musical experience. Relish the moment with VAE's Voices of Innocence. Suggested donation: $6-20.

Next Sunday

Thanksgiving Event with Abraham's Tent

Sunday, November 24 at 5:00pm

At Trinity Cathedral

Next Sunday a meal will be shared with the Salam Center, B'nai Israel, Capital Christian Center and Trinity Cathedral to celebrate faiths that stem from the Abrahamic Tradition.

Each person is asked to bring a nonperishable food item and a vegetarian dish that feeds at least six people. The event will be informal highlighted by the singing songs of that celebrate our faith traditions.

We hope this events leads to commonly agreed upon projects that bind us in brotherly love as we strive to aid our homeless community.

There will be a sign up sheet at the Welcome Center to help with set up demands.

New TNAC Class...

Journaling through Advent with Henri Nouwen

Canon Lynell Walker, Facilitator

Thursdays: Nov. 21, Dec. 5, 12 and 19

Advent is easy to miss. It's a hectic time. The hope of this class is that it will give us a chance to pause, at least five nights, and listen to the summons of Advent. Participants are invited to order this book through the Cathedral Bookshop and bring a journal for posting reflections. It's winter. It's time to pause.

Another New TNAC Class...

Let Every Heart Prepare: Meditations for Advent and Christmas by the Rev. Barbara Cawthorne Crafton.

The Rev. Anne McKeever, Facilitator

Thursdays: Nov. 21, Dec. 5, 12 and 19

Rev. Crafton's stories and reflections will be used as springboards for the sharing of our own Advent and Christmas stories and traditions.

Continuing...

Randy Knutson and Rhonda Canby present the Bible Challenge, through January 2, 2014. It's never too late to start reading the Bible—a little bit every day, with Sundays off – and then to discuss the readings with a group of cheery, open-minded folks. (Conference Room.)

~~~~~

Dean Brian Baker presents the OLD TESTAMENT on December 5. Dean Baker teaches about the Old Testament books of the Bible we're reading for the Bible Challenge. Most TNAC classes attend Dean Baker's classes.
