A Thanksgiving Thank You

Many Thank Yous to all who came to share in the 4th Annual Community Thanksgiving meal...I am beyond grateful to Trinity for their willingness to donate all the food for our Thanksgiving meal which fed 60 to 75 people and I am incredibly delighted by those who arrived to spend their day helping to prepare the banquet to feed those 60 to 75 people and then to help in cleaning up...I believe it was a most wonderful day that showed the abundance - not of food - but of community and communion - as what Thanksgiving should be. Thank you - thanks in giving... Tracy

Bible and Book of Common Prayer Challenge

Facilitators: Rhonda Canby and the Rev. Randy Knutson

A Christmas Carol

Facilitator: Susan Hotchkiss
"A Christmas Carol" has been a holiday favorite for over 150 years. Written as a novella by English author Charles Dickens in 1843, it has been produced for stage and screen a multitude of times. During Advent here at Trinity, we will have the opportunity to view the movie, hear about the work's historical significance and discuss how the themes are still important in our spiritual lives today.
